

"A cat's a cat and
that's that."
Groucho Marx

Douglas Adams: One of the problems of taking things apart and seeing how they work - supposing you're trying to find out how a cat works--you take that cat apart to see how it works, what you've got in your hands is a non-working cat. The cat wasn't a sort of clunky mechanism that was susceptible to our available tools of analysis.

I am watching...

Cats don't like change
without their consent. Cats
can be cooperative when
something feels good.

I am thinking...

Cats don't like change
without their consent. Cats
can be cooperative when
something feels good.

I am resting.....

Cats don't like change
without their consent. Cats
can be cooperative when
something feels good.

Fernand Mery Quote

With the qualities of cleanliness, affection, patience, dignity, and courage that cats have, how many of us, I ask you, would be capable of becoming cats? God made the cat in order that man might have the pleasure of consoling the lion. Are cats lazy? Well, more power to them if they are. Which one of us has not entertained the dream of doing just as he likes, when and how he likes, and as much as he likes? The cat is magical and the bringer of good luck. - Indian
